

Video Case 1: Extraction of Impacted Coin in Upper Esophagus of a 5- Years Old Boy

Tarik Zaher

Tropical Medicine Department, Faculty of Medicine, Zagazig University, Egypt

A 5-years old Egyptian boy presented by mild dysphagia for solids for one year with repeated chest infections and fever. On plain chest X ray impacted coin was found in upper esophagus. After sedation by 2.5 mg I.M. midazolam and oral chloral hydrate solution ; the coin was extracted endoscopically by shark tooth forceps.