Miṣriqiyā

Miṣriqiyā is an international peer-reviewed academic journal of African-Egyptian studies, published quarterly by, the Faculty of Women, Ain Shams University. Miṣriqiyā aims to publish high quality research papers relevant to Africa.

The journal publishes articles in the fields of anthropology, history, sociology, politics, geography, linguistics, literary and cultural studies, and basic sciences. Miṣriqiyā is published in both print and online versions.

With an active editorial board that encompasses scholars from a variety of disciplines based at both Egyptian and international universities, the journal seeks to foster an interdisciplinary and global conversation from, with and about Africa. The journal is open to Arab and international scholars and guarantees a fair and accurate reviewing process. Submissions are accepted throughout the year.

Publication Ethics

Author Guidelines

Authors must follow the APA style of formatting text and references. When using APA format, follow the author-date method of in-text citation. This means that the author's last name and the year of publication for the source should appear in the text, for example, (Jones, 1998), and a complete reference should appear in the reference list at the end of the paper.

For more information, see Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, Seventh Edition, 2020
