

The Chairman of ACA meets with the Minister of Justice and Human Rights in the Republic of Angola

Minister Hassan Abdel Shafi Ahmed, the Chairman of Administrative Control Authority, meets Mr. Francisco Manuel, the Minister of Justice and Human Rights in the Republic of Angola. The meeting addressed the means of future cooperation between both sides in issues of mutual concern, issues of preventing and combating corruption, spreading awareness about its risks, exchanging experts and experience between both sides, paying attention to training in relevant fields.

Chairman of ACA holds a discussion with the chairman of the Greek National Integrity System About types of collaboration between both sides

On the sidelines of meetings held by the Conference of the State Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption in Sharm El Sheikh, Minister Hassan Abdel Shafi Ahmed, the chairman of the Administrative Control Authority, met Mr. Angelos Binios, the chairman of the National Integrity System in Greece. Through videoconference, they discussed the means of possible cooperation between both sides. The meeting addressed the means of future cooperation between both sides in issues of mutual concern, issues of preventing and combating corruption, spreading awareness about its risks, exchanging experts and expertise. During the meeting, a memorandum of understanding was signed between the Egyptian Administrative Control Authority and the Greek National Integrity System for the coming period.